PASTORAL CARE

The St Mary's Church community prays that we can do all we can to support, listen and love all in our parish whether members of our church or not.

The Pastoral Team at St Mary's have established a Prayer Circle at St Mary's. If you have something which you would appreciate prayer for, whether for yourself or for someone you care about, we would be privileged to pray about it. No prayer request is ever too small or trivial. Whatever you wish to share, in confidence, we will support you in prayer.

To ask for prayer you can either telephone, email or text Gillian Lunn and she will place your prayer in the circle. Please be assured your requests are confidential.

You can contact Gillian on Tel: 075 920 16476 or

Email: gillian.lunn@yahoo.com

To be a praying member of the circle or a member of the Pastoral Team, please speak to Gillian. She would love to hear from you.

We also have a Visitor and Phone Call Request form which is available at the back of church. This form can either be completed for yourself or on behalf of someone who you believe would appreciate a visit or a phone call from a member of the Pastoral Team. There is a box clearly marked at the back of church where you can put the slip. If you are unable to complete the form because you are not in church, please telephone, text or email Gillian. We look forward to hearing from you.

VACANCY PROCESS UPDATE

As you will be aware we are currently in vacancy. The PCCs of Richmond with Hudswell, Downholme and Marske are working hard with each other and with Archdeacon Bev to seek the right man or woman to become our new Rector.

We have held both our Pre Section 11 and Section 11 meetings and hope to sign off our Profile and Brochure at our Section 12 meeting on Wednesday 27th September.

An advert will go into the Church Times twice, the Church of England and Diocesan websites and we would hope to be able to interview candidates at the beginning of December.

The PCC would be very grateful for your support and prayers for God's guiding hand.

Letter from Bishop John

October 2017

October often seems to me like a nothing month. I shouldn't really be rude to it. After all it's the month of the victory at Trafalgar (1805), the month the House of Commons burnt down (1834), Jane Eyre was published (1847), and both The King and I (1953) and the Post office Tower (1965) opened in London. Oh, and the Watergate trial started in 1974.

But October seems to be the month when summer has well and truly gone, autumn hasn't really got under way, and Christmas is still far off. I wish October well but I can't really get excited about it. It's actually pretty ordinary.

But here I come up short. What do I mean by 'ordinary'? In God's world nothing is ordinary in the sense of bland, boring and with nothing to say for itself. It's just that we haven't looked deeply enough. The American writer Barbara Brown Taylor says that the most ordinary things are drenched in divine possibility.

That's particularly true of people. I realised long ago that there are no such things as 'ordinary people.' When you meet anybody new you're meeting a huge bundle of stories, some wonderful, some tragic, some challenging, all fascinating. Ask anybody to tell you a little about themselves and you get a feast of stories because every life is deep in experience and rich in detail.

When people say of themselves that they're 'just' this or that, or when they say they're 'just ordinary', everything in me rises up in protest. There are two words often used in conversation for which I would like to be able to issue on the spot fines. One is 'just', and the other is 'fine'. ('How are you?' 'Fine'. Which covers everything from 'this has been the most memorable week of my life' to 'I'm just about hanging on, but don't push me.')

In the Church's year October is called 'ordinary time', which simply means it's not Lent, Advent, Christmas, Easter etc. To my mind that allows us to concentrate on redeeming anything that might be called ordinary and bringing it to a greater beauty and purpose. Let's do 'ordinary' things with 'extraordinary' love, whether it's having coffee with a friend, sending an email, going to church, tidying up the garden, helping a neighbour – or being kind to ourselves for a bit.

I slipped 'going to church' in there. If we're churchgoers the Sunday morning experience can easily become a bit ordinary, like any repeated habit. But if we come looking for the extraordinary, the touch of grace, the word of the Lord, the splash of beauty, the conviction of truth, then Sunday morning can become quite an adventure. It all depends on our expectation. Try it.

So, here's to an extraordinary October. (And by the way, in October the News of the World was first published in 1843, St Pancras Station opened in 1868, and the People's Republic of China was formed in 1949. But you probably knew all that anyway...)

+John Pritchard

FUN-KEY CHURCH @ ST MARY'S RICHMOND

By the time you read this we will have celebrated Harvest at Fun-Key Church. We will no doubt have had lots of activities and hymns and songs and a reading and a short talk. We will also have had a quiet space where you can just relax and spend time with God.

We will have enjoyed refreshments from the MU team and we so appreciate all the support which the MU and our volunteers give. We really could not do what we do without their help.

Our service in October is probably going to be on the theme of Bible Sunday but at time of going to press that was undecided. What is decided is that we will meet on Sunday 29th October for very relaxed fun, faith and fellowship for all ages. You will be VERY welcome.

"The Happy Bodgers". Over the last few months a few of our gentlemen have been looking at how they can work together to help others who may be in need of a practical assistance. As a result they have formed a group called "The Happy Bodgers". Happily they are far more skilled than their title suggests and they are able to offer a variety of help free of charge.

They write -

"We realise that, as people grow older or disabled, they may need help with odd jobs. They may be perfectly capable of changing a light bulb, but can't safely climb onto a chair to do it. Or climb into the loft to retrieve stored items. So we offer to do such simple tasks on a voluntary basis provided they are within our own abilities. These are DIY jobs which may require simple skills, not the sorts of job that would need a 'white van man'. We have different skill sets and could allocate tasks accordingly.

Try us - we can say no if we don't feel capable. We could probably not take on regular tasks such as lawn mowing, weeding, shopping etc.

Why not give us a call on 01748 826803 and John Dickinson will see if the Happy Bodgers can help, and take it from there." We look forward to helping you.

SOMETHING TO READ...

God with us: the meaning of the Cross and resurrection

By Rowan Williams, SPCK, £8.99 Full of illuminating theological insights, and with questions for discussion or personal reflection at the end of each chapter, this is a helpful book for all those who want to deepen their understanding and appreciation of the heart of the gospel.

Travelling Solo – and celebrating life's new opportunities

By Jo Cundy, LionHudson, £7.99 This book's starting point is an unexpected bereavement. It then walks the reader through the first steps of travelling through life alone. It is both anecdotal and reflective.

The book draws on Jo Cundy's journal writings and reflections, and is themed around the last few years of learning to 'travel solo' after the death of her husband, Ian. She writes: 'I hope that other people in similar situations will be encouraged to grasp the opportunities that are on offer in their lives. God does not abandon us, but remains as active in our lives as we allow Him to be.'

The Bible in 50 words God made, Adam bit, Noah arked, Abraham split
Joseph ruled, Jacob fooled, Bush talked, Moses balked
Pharaoh plagued, People walked, Sea divided, Tablets guided Promise landed, Saul freaked, David peaked, Prophets warned
Jesus born, God walked, Love talked, Anger crucified,
Hope died, Love rose, Spirit flamed, Word spread, God remained. - anon

CONGRATULATIONS to our Bell Tower Team...

...who rang the first ever quarter peal on St Mary's Church new bells on Sunday 10th September before the Mayor's Civic Service at 6.30pm. Not only that but they revived an old ringing tradition of ringing "Queens" when the Mayor leaves the church. An amazing achievement and wonderful that so many of our community were able to hear them as they paraded in and out of church.

We welcomed Mayors from Hartlepool, Northallerton, Bedale, representatives from The Duck Club, The Soroptomists, and members of local businesses.

Gillian led and preached at the service, the choir sang beautifully conducted by Chris Denton with the organ played by Andrew Christer. The Mayor Stuart Parsons and Peter Trewby read the lessons, Margaret Emmerson a Freeman of Richmond led the prayers, and money was raised for the Mayor's charities. A huge thank you to all who helped on the night and those able to come along and support.

Thank you

The busy, almost frenetic, time leading up to our farewell and move to Newark has now been overtaken by a sense of calmness, filled with box opening and exploration of our new neighbourhood.

Bishop James, sent me an email, in which he said "I hope the farewells were good for you both and that you settle well. Retirement is wonderful!"

Well Bishop, they were, we have and time will tell.

The farewells were so special and meaningful and we would like to thank you most sincerely for the very memorable way in which you said goodbye to us. There were many individual farewells, farewells from the various organisations with which we have been so closely involved and then that very special farewell Songs of Praise. One could not fail to feel the presence of the Holy Spirit in St Mary's, energising and bringing together people of all ages from many aspects of the communities, civic, commercial and church. A special thank you to our Methodist brothers and sisters who set aside their regular evening service to be with us – ecumenism at its best.

Thank you so much for the wonderful gifts you so generously presented to us. They will certainly help us never forget our time in beautiful North Yorkshire and the joy of being part of God's family in the benefice of Richmond, Hudswell, Downholme and Marske

Be assured of our prayers for you as you discern God's will for the next stage in the ministry of the benefice.

Yours in Christ

John and Liz

The Twilight Years

It's Autumn once again, or as the Americans call it, 'the Fall', the time when Summer's leaves die and drop to the ground, leaving the trees bare until Spring. There is something about Autumn that speaks of transition: from sun and holidays to mists and long nights: Keats's 'season of mists and mellow fruitfulness'. It's not Winter, but it is Winter's herald. When the nights grow longer, we know it's not far away.

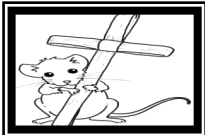

I suppose for all those reasons we also often associate Autumn with the twilight of life. Once our working days are done, and we've enjoyed the early years of active retirement, many people then enjoy (and I do mean 'enjoy'!) the twilight years of reflection, memories, and family, without the pressure of needing to 'justify' themselves or 'prove' anything. There's a wonderful verse in Psalm 92 which captures the feeling perfectly: 'In old age they still produce fruit; they are always green and full of sap'.

So, older readers of these words, Spring-time green and 'full of sap', enjoy your Autumn. And younger readers, don't dread the future arrival of those twilight years. You may find they're a lot more rewarding than you expected.
