The July Charity of the Month is Refugee Action

Refugee Action helps people who have survived some of the world's worst regimes. This active charity helps get Refugees the basic support they need to live again with dignity, building safe, happy and productive lives in the UK. 'Our vision is that refugees and people seeking asylum will be welcome in the UK. They will get justice, live free of poverty and be able to successfully rebuild their lives' www.refugee-action.org.uk

This is a particularly relevant charity at this time.

Choral Evensong tonight, Sunday 2nd July St. Edmund's Church, Marske

Choral Evensong this evening will be at Marske at the usual time of 6.30pm. Come and support this service out in one of our beautiful Churches in the Benefice. If you would like to sing, it is still not too late! Let Colin know after the morning service. The rehearsal will be at 5pm in Marske. There will be no service at St. Mary's

'Afternoon Tea in the Garden' (Mothers' Union Annual Fundraiser)

Thank you to all who attended or ordered takeaway teas. It was such an enjoyable afternoon and also a very successful one, raising £608 for Mothers Union funds.

A very special thank you to all of our faithful helpers without whom it would be impossible to host. Susan Scrafton

Richmondshire Museum historical talk by Bob Woodings,

Tuesday 11th July at 7pm, Bob Woodings will be giving a talk in the Richmondshire Museum, the subject of this talk is Richmond's Easby Choir Stalls, our often overlooked treasure. This intriguing story from 1520 will be told including the changes made in 1710 and 1860. Space in the Museum is limited so places need to be booked by phoning 825611. Jane Hatcher

Marrick Priory Annual Strawberry Tea, Sunday 16th July

The Friends would be delighted to see you, having booked Reeth Band, ordered strawberries and cream as well as making other treats we really need you to come to enjoy the afternoon with us. Buses will bring visitors from Grinton field from 2.45, for a start of 3pm. There will also be the opportunity for younger visitors to try the high ropes course. This is a cost free afternoon although there will be a raffle and donations would be gratefully received. We hope to welcome you....and some sunshine.

Annual Summer Family Barbecue, Saturday 22nd July

The Friends of St. Mary's will be organising the barbeque on Sat 22 July in the Rectory Garden, starting serving from 1.00pm and finishing at 5.00pm. As well as the barbecue, drinks will be available as well as a selection of garden games and music throughout the afternoon. Tickets £5.00 per person with under 12 year olds free. Tickets from John Challis (07712 135601), Jim Jack (07754 283161), Andy Lovell or through other members of the committee after church or during the week or from Castle Hill Bookshop. Tickets can also be bought on arrival. The event will go ahead in church if the weather is inclement. Do come along and support this annual social event Jim Jack.

'Some enchanted evening', Sunday 6th August 6.30pm

On Sunday 6th August at 6.30pm there will be music for a summer evening with refreshments in the pews. Chris Denton and Camilla will be performing the music of Purcell, Peter Maxwell-Davies, Rogers and Hammerstein and Louis Vierne in this informal concert.

Please come along and support this event. Chris Denton

Bible study guidelines: New Daylight

Details of these helpful booklets, with a short Bible passage and thoughts on it, can be found in the July/Aug. magazine, p.24. There is often a sample at the back of St Mary's. Mark Beresford-Peirce
