The May Charity of the Month is The Brain Tumour Charity:

Brain Tumours are hard to treat and because of this, research has lagged behind research into other forms of cancer, with little progress made in improving survival rates compared with other cancers. In recent years, some new forms of treatment have been started and there is hope that they may yield encouraging results. Research needs funding and that is where this charity comes in.

Please help if you can www.thebraintumourcharity.org

Benefice Songs of Praise, TODAY 14th June, 4pm at Downholme

Today, in place of Choral Evensong at St Mary's, there will be a united benefice Songs of Praise service at Downholme church.

Bring a picnic to enjoy outside afterwards! If you would like to help lead the singing, please let Colin know. Short rehearsal at 3.15pm there!

Music for this Songs of Praise will be:

Praise my soul the King of heaven, Morning has broken, Daisies are our silver, buttercups our gold, Glad that I live am I, All things bright and beautiful, An upper room, The Lord's my shepherd, Shine Jesus Shine, The call, Now thank we all our God.

200 Club

This fun form of giving to St. Marys will have completed your annual contribution at the end of this month June. I will be reminding many of you who pay by BACS that your fee is due.

There are spare numbers should you wish to take part. One number is £10, this enters each number to be entered into 12 monthly draws with an additional one in December.

Richmond Open Pantry needs you!

Together, the churches of Richmond will be launching an Open Pantry in October. This will be similar to the Open Pantry in the parish of Easby, Skeeby, Brompton and Bolton which we supported at our Harvest Festivals in 2024-25. If you would be willing to join me in representing St Mary's on the Planning Team please contact me. Thank you. Martin
