As a new season of Morning Worship approaches, we are asking all those interested in taking part to sign up to be part of the team! We've seen some amazing services from members of our congregation in the past, so if you're interested, have a chat with Canon Martin or Revd Lorna.

Change of days off!

I (Revd Lorna) will now be taking Fridays as my day off rather than Mondays, so please feel free to contact me on Mondays. This also means Morning Prayer is now offered on every weekday!

September Charity of the Month: Friends of Garget Walker House

This Dementia Forward purpose built house in Richmond was built by Mrs Kathleen Walker and Doris Garget who both cared for their husbands and understood the importance of Day Services for those with Dementia.

The Friends of Garget Walker House support the work going on at this hub. Dementia Forward, took over the running of the building in 2021 and together provide this essential service for the local community. More information can be found on the Dementia Forward website where Garget Walker House is listed as one of their assets.
