The January Charity of the Month is Samaritans

Samaritans is a UK and Ireland charity dedicated to providing emotional support to people experiencing distress or feeling overwhelmed.

Founded in 1953, it offers confidential listening services by phone, email, and face-to-face, staffed largely by trained volunteers. Samaritans believes that having someone to listen without judgement can help people find their own way forward.

Beyond its helpline, the charity works to raise awareness about mental health, reduce stigma, and influence public policy.

Samaritans also supports communities, schools, and workplaces with resources and training, aiming to make compassionate listening accessible to everyone through research, outreach, and partnerships nationwide and abroad today. www.samaritans.org
