July Charity of the Month:

Home-Start Richmondshire,
Supporting Families across
Richmondshire

Our Aim is for every parent to have the support they need to give their children the best possible start in life.

Home-Start Richmondshire's friendly and caring volunteers understand the joys, frustrations and challenges of bringing up children. A volunteer visits a family at home once a week, offering time, friendship, support, encouragement and practical help for as long as is needed.

There really is no issue too small or insignificant.

This is a truly local charity worthy of our consideration and support during July. Lots of interesting information available on their website at:

A message from Revd. Lorna

A big thank you! Now everything has somewhat settled, I'd like to say a massive thank you to everyone in the congregation for your prayers and support for my ordination. The book shelf now sits on my mantelpiece holding the books I'm reading that week, and I'm going to buy some oil holders with the money – something to carry with me throughout my ministry! It truly means a lot, and it is an honour to be serving you all.

Revd. Lorna
