July Charity of the Month:

Home-Start Richmondshire,

Supporting Families across Richmondshire, our Aim is for every parent to have the support they need to give their children the best possible start in life.

Home-Start Richmondshire's friendly and caring volunteers understand the joys, frustrations and challenges of bringing up children. A volunteer visits a family at home once a week, offering time, friendship, support, encouragement and practical help for as long as is needed.

There really is no issue too small or insignificant.

This is a truly local charity worthy of our consideration and support during July. Lots of interesting information available on their website at:
