The May Charity of the Month is Christian Aid:

to tie in with Christian Aid Week which was 11 to 17 May. Christian Aid is a global movement of people, churches and local organisations who define themselves as 'The changemakers, the peacemakers, the mighty of heart'.

The groundbreaking work began in 1945, when they were founded by British and Irish churches to help refugees following World War II.

Much more information on their website www.christianaid.org.uk

Today's Organ Voluntary

Andrew Christer, our Organist today, will play the virtuosic voluntary 'Litanies' by Jehan Alain, written in 1937. Alain was only 29 when killed in battle during World War II. He said of the work, 'Prayer is not a lament but a devastating tornado, flattening everything in its way, an obsession' This piece starts with a plainsong melody and ends in a firestorm of virtuosity!
