November Charity of the Month:

Combat Stress

Combat Stress is the UK's leading charity dedicated to supporting veterans' mental health. Founded in 1919, it provides life-changing treatment and support for former servicemen and women struggling with conditions such as post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), depression, and anxiety. The charity offers a range of free, specialist clinical services including therapy, peer support, and recovery programmes, delivered both in-person and online. Working closely with the NHS and the Armed Forces community, Combat Stress helps veterans rebuild their lives and regain independence. It's mission is to ensure that no veteran faces mental health challenges alone. <https://combatstress.org.uk/>

Café Church, Sunday 16th November, 4pm

The sessions will last an hour and based on the book "Into the Heart of Advent" by Penelope Wilcock (but it's not necessary to buy the book to join in). Sign-ups are at the back of the church! Revd. Lorna
