DATES FOR THE DIARY

Next week there will be a Choral Evensong at 6.30pm in St Marys led by our robed choir.

This will be the first chance for the choir to lead worship since the start of lock down and since the recent update to government guidelines on how we are able to sing in church.

Whilst we are now able to have a choir singing in church it is not yet within the rules for the congregation to join in.

It will, however, be wonderful to have our robed choir leading one of our acts of worship in our church building.

We are working to see if it is possible to make this one of our blended services (ie available also on Zoom and Youtube). More details on this to follow later on our website (under "What's On").
