The April Charity of the Month is Refugee Action

Refugee Action helps people who have survived some of the world's worst regimes. Refugee Action helps get them the basic support they need to live again with dignity. The charity helps them build safe, happy and productive lives in the UK. Refugee Action states 'Our vision is that refugees and people seeking asylum will be welcome in the UK. They will get justice, live free of poverty and be able to successfully rebuild their lives'. This is a particularly relevant charity at this time.

Church decoration for Easter

Some of us will be in church on Saturday 16 April to decorate the church for Easter. If you would like to join us, you would be most welcome. We shall be here from 10am and look forward to seeing you. Thank you, Judith Clarke 826793.

Tonight at 6.30pm: 'The Crucifixion' by John Stainer (1840-1901)

Stainer was one of the most distinguished musicians of his generation. In 1872 he was appointed organist of St Paul's Cathedral, where he raised performance standards and greatly expanded the repertoire. He was regarded as one of the foremost composers of cathedral music, and was closely involved with the compilation of 'Hymns Ancient & Modern'. As is often the case, most of this is long forgotten, and today Stainer is remembered simply for The Crucifixion and a few rather fine anthems and hymn-tunes.

The Crucifixion is scored for soloists, mixed choir and organ. It was dedicated to Stainer's pupil and friend William Hodge, assistant sub-organist at St Paul's Cathedral and organist and choirmaster at Marylebone Parish Church, where the cantata was first performed in February 1887. In composing The Crucifixion, Stainer's intention was to provide a Passiontide cantata written in a musical language and on a scale that would put it within the scope of most parish choirs. The Revd William Sparrow-Simpson, Succentor and Librarian of St Paul's, compiled the libretto, drawing on the Gospel accounts for the narrative elements of the story and writing the texts of the choruses, arias and hymns himself. The Crucifixion will be directed by Chris Denton and the Organist is Andrew Christer, organist of St. Cuthbert's Darlington

Church Electoral Roll

The Electoral Roll is revised and updated each year in advance of the APCM to be held on 8th May. At the back of the church is a copy of the current Electoral Roll (names only). Please check that you are included and if you wish to join, please fill in the form at the back of the church and leave in the box or give to a member of church staff.
