The August Charity of the month 'Just the Job'

Just the Job is a local dynamic, inventive charity and social enterprise supporting adults with a wide range of abilities in practical, work orientated therapeutic activities. Established in 2005, Just the Job has grown and developed. Just the Job aims to empower, support and nurture individuals to develop a wide variety of skills. Workers are drawn from the local community and working with occupational therapists and the Adult Learning and Skills service. <https://just-the-job.org.uk>

Chris Denton's final Services Today.

Today, 14th August, is our Director of Music Chris Denton's final Sunday with us before he departs for his new appointment as Church Music Director for two churches in Norway.

There will be refreshments after the 10am service when we can thank him for his service to the music here at St. Mary's. Choral Evensong, tonight at 6.30pm will be his final service.

Thank you, Chris for your hard work here at St. Mary's and we all wish you well in your new venture.

Forthcoming Church Coffee Mornings to which all are welcome:

Saturday 17th September at Jeanette and Paul Sunderland's home
Saturday 17th December in the Town Hall.

Italian Evening – Friends of Marrick Priory. A huge thank you to all who were with us last Saturday. The support we were given managed to raise £1,000 for the bursary fund, with a few nominal expenses yet to be deducted. We think we all had a great evening. John & Judith Clarke

Advance Notice: Plant and Produce Sale, August Bank Holiday Weekend – Saturday 27th
