The January Charity of the Month is the RNLI (Royal National Lifeboat Institution)

The brave volunteers of the RNLI have been saving lives at sea since 1824. Across the years many things have changed, but the courage and commitment of our lifesavers has continued to the present day, as we work towards our goal of saving every one. Their fascinating history of lifesaving at sea since the late 18th Century can be found on their informative website <https://rnli.org>

Junior Church at the Methodist Church

The 3rd Sunday of the month (starting on the 19th January) we will be joining forces with the Methodist Church for Junior Church!

All youngsters are welcome, and any grown up helpers will be very welcomed too!

Café Church, Sunday 19th January, 4pm

We wanted to include our benefice villages in Café Church and so we have Liz Kluz representing Marske on 19th Jan. As we know from her magazine articles, Liz has a fascinating story to tell. Please come!

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: Christians Together 'Agape Meal', Wednesday 22nd January at 6:30pm

There has been a change of plan (please note the earlier start time of 6:30pm), with the Catholic Church kindly offering to organise the meal as well as to host it in their Hall on Newbiggin.

To assist them with arranging the catering please could you indicate you will be coming by adding your name to the sign-up sheet at the back of St Mary's (or by letting Martin know).

All are welcome as the churches of Richmond gather for fellowship and to 'break bread' together.
