The January Charity of the Month is the RNLi
(Royal National Lifeboat Institution)

The brave volunteers of the RNLi have been saving lives at sea since 1824. Across the years many things have changed, but the courage and commitment of our lifesavers has continued to the present day, as we work towards our goal of saving every one. Their fascinating history of lifesaving at sea since the late 18th Century can be found on their informative website <https://rnli.org>
